From the Country to the City

My name is Lawan, and I'm 10 years old. I live in Bangkok, the capital city of Thailand. I've lived in Bangkok for four years. When I was younger, I lived in a village in the country. We moved to the city because my dad got a job at the airport.

My grandparents still live in the village, and we visit them often. It's about 600 kilometers from Bangkok. We travel there by train and by bus. It takes 14 hours!

I love my grandparents, but I love the city. Bangkok is exciting! I love the crowds and the stores. Every weekend, I go downtown with my family. We travel by tuk-tuk or by subway.

We live in an apartment on the 18th floor of a skyscraper. I can see the airport from the apartment. I've never been on a plane, but that's ok. Bangkok is the best!
