A young woman with dark hair and bangs, wearing a dark blue school uniform with a white collar and a patterned tie, is sitting at a desk. She has a thoughtful expression, looking slightly to the right. The background is blurred, showing other people in a classroom setting.

Is this true?

How do I know if this is true?

How do I go about finding out whether this is true or not?

What tools should I be using to verify whether something is true or not?

Children in Singapore will no longer be ranked by exam results. Here's why

What is critical thinking?

In the state of New York,
is it legal for a man to marry his own widow's
sister?

How do we get students
to share what they think?

You are a pilot whose airplane is about to crash and must make a split-second decision on whether to a) make an attempt to save the lives of 35 passengers by..

attempting to land on a relatively flat housing area
consequently killing 100+ residents (and maybe all or some of the passengers if the landing is not so successful)

or b) do nothing by letting the plane crash into one of the adjacent mountains whereby killing all 35 passengers and yourself (the pilot). Which would you choose and why?
