B Read and answer.

Skills Tip

When you do a math problem, always check your answer.

How to Check Your Answers

Good students always check their answers. How do you check them? Just use the opposite kind of math.

For example, you want to add $12 + 27$, and you think the answer is 39. How can you be sure? Use subtraction! $39 - 27 = 12$. Also, $39 - 12 = 27$. Your answer is correct!

Now, you want to do a subtraction problem. You think that $48 - 13 = 35$. How can you be sure? Use addition! $35 + 13 = 48$. Your answer is correct!

This works with multiplication and division, too. You think that $3 \times 5 = 15$. How can you check? You know that $15 \div 5 = 3$, so your answer is correct.

Let's try division. You think that $24 \div 2 = 12$. How do you know it's correct? Just multiply 12×2 . Is your answer 24? Good job!

- What kind of math do you use to check an addition problem?

- What kind of math do you use to check a multiplication problem?

- What kind of math do you use to check a division problem?

C Read and circle.

|--|------|-------|
| 1. Good students don't have to check their answers. | True | False |
| 2. You should use addition to check a subtraction problem. | True | False |
| 3. Addition is the opposite of division. | True | False |

D Answer the word problems.

1. Mrs. Johnson's sixth-grade class has twenty-eight students. Thirteen students are boys. How many students are girls?

Answer: _____

2. Jenna orders six pizzas for her party. She cuts each pizza into eight slices. How many slices of pizza does she have?

Answer: _____

3. There are thirty-five days before Fred's birthday. How many weeks are there before his birthday?

Answer: _____

E Look at D and write sentences.

1. For the first problem, you should use _____.
2. _____
3. _____

F Read, think, and answer.

Tom wants to go to the department store. First, he'll ride a bus. Then, he'll take the subway. The bus will take seven minutes, and the subway will take twenty minutes. How long will it take Tom to get to the department store?

It will take Tom _____ minutes.

What kind of math did you use? How did you check your answer?

type a report have a party scrub the sink
~~invite a friend over~~ repair the house stay up late

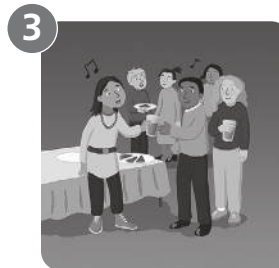

Illustration 1 shows a girl on the left sitting at a desk and reading an open book. On the right, a boy and a girl are sitting together at a desk, looking at a laptop screen. There are papers and a pen on the desk in front of them.

3. I have to go to bed early, but my daughter does.
I don't have to go to bed early, but my daughter do.

A Read.My Trip to Hawaii

By Zack

My family and I went to Hawaii last week. I am 12 years old now, so I had more privileges on this trip. I could stay up late in the hotel and watch scary movies. I could even take surfing lessons, but I couldn't go to the beach or walk up the busy streets alone.

I also had more responsibilities this time. I helped Mom make sandwiches for lunch so we could have picnics on the beach. I had to babysit my little sister twice when my parents went to a restaurant. I also had to read some textbooks and do some homework for school before we flew home.

B Read again and answer the questions.

1. What could Zack do in the hotel?

Zack could stay up late and watch scary movies in the hotel.

2. What couldn't he do alone?

3. What did Zack have to do when his parents went to a restaurant?

4. What did Zack have to do for school?

C Write about your responsibilities and privileges.

What do you have to do at home? What do you have to do at school?

What can you do on weekends?
