Read the story.
A Road Trip
On July 7, Joe and Rob pack their bags and start their road trip to New York City. Their first stop is Yellowstone National Park. They listen to a rapper talk about the wildlife in the park. That night they go to bed under a sky full of stars, but Rob can't sleep. He's nervous about the wildlife.
The next day, their GPS breaks. "We're not going in the right direction!" Rob says. "We're lost!"
"No problem!" says Joe. "We can take the southern route. We'll see some beautiful scenery."
But there are a lot of problems. They have a flat tire in west Texas and get a speeding ticket in east Texas. In South Carolina, they run out of gas. Then, five miles from New York City, their car breaks down. "Now, this is a problem," Joe says.
"No, it isn't," says Rob. He calls the number on his automobile club card. Help arrives in 20 minutes.
After 5,000 miles of problems, Joe and Rob finally reach their destination—by tow truck!
